A Leading Agent

Dick has been a leading agent on the Eastside of Seattle. Dick is partnered with his wife Cecilia who is also a top producing licensed real estate agent. Together as a team they are able to provide exceptional service.

Creditials

Dick has received and obtained Graduate of Real Estate Institute (GRI) and Certified Residential Specialist (CRS) designations in 1993, designations held by only the top 2% of all real estate professionals. Dick has been very involved with the company's relocation program, helping transferees from any parts of the country. He has worked with companies such as Microsoft, IBM, Digital Equipment, Qwest, Boeing and Royal Oaks Mines to mention a few.

You Deserve the Best

Dick's real world business experience, understanding of finance, and his expertise in negotiating major purchases and contracts has given him the edge to be successful in real estate. His business experience combined with honesty and a strong work ethic provides him with the qualities needed to make your transaction go smoothly and be as successful as possible.
